Agnes S. Murdock

Agnes Stanley Murdock, 91, passed away Nov. 1, 1936 in Salt Lake. Born Jan. 5, 1895 in Park City, a daughter of Cyrus William Orr. Elizabeth (Edith) Murr, her mother, died Nov. 10, 1915 in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. He preceded her in death. As did her daughter, Ruth and grandson, Hugh. Surviving her are: LeMar and Helen (Ruth) Murr, Robert and Betty Murr, Wynn, Ralph and Delore Murr, 16 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren; two brothers, Odell Stanley of San Jose, Calif., and Devere Stanley of Stor, Idaho. The LDS Church has always been a vital part of her life, especially the Relief Society and the Young Women's organization. She was an active member of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers and looked forward to their monthly meetings. She has always been very industrious and independent. Her keen mind, a delightful sense of humor and a great zest for living created a spark of aliveness wherever she was. As a result, family, friends and neighbors were inspired by her example of great employment and assistance in her life. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, Nov. 4 at noon in the Valley View 7th Ward, 2245 East 3900 So., where friends may call one and one half hours prior to the services. Interment Heber City Cemetery. Directing: Holbrook Funeral Chapel. N3 11/3 T 11/3
